Profile

With expertise in a diverse range of technologies including MSSQL, Node.js, Express and React, I am a dedicated and adaptable Full Stack Web Developer. I am a quick learner, driven by a passion to continuously evolve my skills. Highly motivated in everything related to the development of the knowledge and code efficiency, striving to deliver innovative solutions.

Education

Software Developer - Smart College

JANUARY 2023 - AUGUST 2023

Skillfully gained hands-on experience with Node.js, Express, and MSSQL for server development. On the client side, I expertly utilized React.js for creating dynamic user interfaces. This equips me with a comprehensive understanding of full-stack development.

Software Developer - Ort Singalovski

SEPTEMBER 2020 - SEPTEMBER 2021

Excelled in a rigorous year-long developer course, mastering Full Stack and OOP fundamentals. This immersive experience fortified my skill set and instilled the agility needed to excel in fast-paced tech landscapes.

Employment History

- Design user experience based on core UI/UX principles using Figma

Sales Banker - Mizrahi Tefahot Bank

SEPTEMBER 2021 — MARCH 2023

I embarked on a time-constrained project that encompassed a spectrum of disciplines within the banking industry. Over the course of my engagement, I strategically cultivated proficiency across several specialized domains in parallel. This role necessitated unwavering punctuality, an exceptional level of patience, acute attentiveness, and an unswerving dedication to exceeding client expectations..

Shift Manager - Aroma Israel

DECEMBER 2019 - FEBRUARY 2020

By virtue of my valued role as a skilled shift manager, I took on a comprehensive set of responsibilities that included culinary work, barista work and a variety of other refined skills. Within this repertoire of skills, a central facet included the cultivation and development of a team through the absorption and comprehensive training of the team members.
